Dear Applicant!

As Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated prepares to commemorate 100 years since her founding by young visionaries on the campus of Howard University in 1920, I am proud to announce that applications are now being accepted for the 2020 Founders' Centennial Scholarship. To honor the legacy of the five founding members of the sorority, a $100,000 scholarship will be awarded annually, for five (5) consecutive years beginning March 2020.

The Founders' Centennial Scholarship offers financial assistance, not to exceed the maximum of the award to cover the cost of tuition and related expenses, to a graduating female senior at a Title I high school meeting the eligibility requirements, which includes enrollment as a full-time student at an accredited college or university in Fall 2020. Please note - affiliation with any member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated or any of its auxiliary organizations is not an eligibility requirement for this scholarship. However, community service and involvement is a plus.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated was founded on the principles of Scholarship, Service, Sisterhood, and Finer Womanhood through the vision of our courageous Founders to affect positive change in the community and encourage the highest standards in the achievement of academic excellence. With the principle of scholarship in mind, the Founders' Centennial Scholarship program has been implemented to provide recipients with the opportunity to maximize their college experience through service-learning, volunteerism and internships.

If you meet the eligibility requirements, I encourage you to apply today for the 2020 Founders' Centennial Scholarship. The deadline to submit your application for consideration is Thursday, January 16, 2020! Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated takes pride in her continued zest for excellence and is poised for perpetual service to mankind by awarding the most worthy recipients. Good luck!

Sisterly in Service,

Valerie Hollingsworth-Baker
25th International Centennial President

About Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. was founded January 16, 1920, at Howard University, Washington, D.C. by five coeds who envisioned a sorority which would directly affect positive change, chart a course of action for the 1920s and beyond, raise consciousness of their people, encourage the highest standards of scholastic achievement, and foster a greater sense of unity among its members. These women believed in a mission of progressiveness that would address fully the societal mores, ills, prejudices, and poverty affecting humanity.

Since its inception, Zeta has continued to demonstrate concern for the human condition both nationally and internationally. Zeta's national and local programs include the endowment of its National Educational Foundation community outreach services and support of multiple affiliate organizations. Zeta chapters and auxiliaries have given untold hours of voluntary service to educate the public, assist youth, provide scholarships, support organized charities, and promote legislation for social and civic change.

The sorority takes pride in its continued participation in transforming communities through volunteer services from members and its auxiliaries. Zeta Phi Beta has chartered hundreds of chapters worldwide and has a membership of 100,000+.

As the sorority moves toward its centennial, it retains its original zest for excellence. It espouses the highest academic ideals and that has resulted in its members serving in groundbreaking roles in all fields of entertainment, science, education, technology, public service, entertainment and beyond. Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. is poised for perpetual service to mankind into her second century and beyond.

Award Intent

In honor of the five founding members of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, the Centennial International President of Zeta Phi Beta will award $100,000 scholarship each year to a new recipient, for five consecutive years beginning the sorority's Centennial Anniversary year of 2020. The award will be made to one deserving female high school senior to cover educational cost up to and not to exceed $100,000 total. The award is targeted to honor a Title I school senior, who exhibits personal integrity and excellence through academic achievement and community involvement, and demonstrates a moderate to significant need for financial assistance in attaining her educational goals. The recipient may complete her undergraduate studies in the field of her choice at an accredited four-year college or university of her choice. Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated will conduct an international search to find and award the most worthy recipient of this award. The award recipients' journey to Centennial will be chronicled from March 2020, award through June 2020, Centennial.
