SCHOOL PROFILE 2022-2023

MISSION

Woodlawn High School provides a safe and supportive environment that fosters opportunities for all students to achieve academic success, while also ensuring students obtain necessary life-skills through partaking in opportunities to grow intellectually, philanthropically and socially.

VISION

At Woodlawn High School, our students are responsible members of the community who demonstrate this by respecting the right of all to learn in a safe and challenging atmosphere, while inspiring themselves and others intellectually, physically and emotionally to reach their highest collective potential.

ABOUT WOODLAWN

Established in 1949, Woodlawn High School ranks among the top high schools located in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. WHS is a four-year, public high school enrolling approximately 1400 students in grades 9-12.

WHS features specialized academic and arts programs, including: Advanced Placement (AP), Dual Enrollment (DE), Gifted, Great Scholars Academy, Magnet, Talented Music, Talented Theatre, and Talented Visual Arts. WHS has developed college preparatory and career pathways to help ensure success among its student population.

The WHS campus serves as a beacon for strong parental involvement and vast community support, hosting events including the annual Louisiana Special Olympics, numerous athletic tournaments and community school activities.

To explore the academic and extracurricular opportunities available at WHS, please visit www.woodlawnhighbr.org. Follow WHS on Facebook and Twitter @WoodlawnHighBR. WHS parents and teachers are encouraged to join the Parent and Teacher Organization (PTO). WHS alumni are invited to join the WHS Alumni Association.
